Organic vegetables and herb plants for sale!

Plants are still available and will be sold until May 15th (or when plants run out).

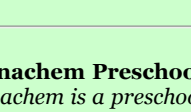

Choose from: 14 varieties of heirloom tomatoes, 3 varieties of standard tomatoes
6 varieties of cherry tomatoes, 2 varieties of cucumbers
7 varieties of peppers, 8 different herbs

The garden project on the 29th went well, and work still continues. Please contact Zohar if you would like to volunteer. Many generous donors have assisted with sponsorship of garden beds. Friendship Garden has also received a grant from The Columbus and Franklin County Community Garden program.

What is the Friendship Garden?

Bringing three programs together (Friendship Circle, LifeTown, and Gan Menachem Preschool), the Friendship Garden will allow participants to produce healthy food for the Center, learn valuable gardening skills, environmental responsibility, and enjoy the variety of our natural world. Produce from the garden will be sold at the New Albany Farmer's Market to raise funds for Chabad programming, and will also be donated to soup kitchens and other organizations dedicated to feeding the hungry of Columbus.

To find out how you can help make the Friendship Garden a reality, contact Gan Menachem Preschool Director, Zohar Asbel, by email at lscppreschool@gmail.com or by phone at (614) 289-8557. A detailed list of plants for sale and prices is available online at the Chabad Center website, or pick one up in the lobby.

Don't garden? Donations of any size are welcome! For $250 a raised garden bed can be dedicated to you or in memory of a loved one.
