This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

A new JLI class - please join us!

What was it like for our ancestors to say goodbye to the shtetl, to set out to discover new lives for themselves, along with all of the liberties the free world had to offer? At the dawn of the enlightenment, how did our parents adapt their Judaism to the developments of a modern age? And what can we learn from their struggles to connect deeply with our own Jewish identities?

This new course will give you the opportunity to make sense of your personal Jewishness; it will help you overcome perceived incompatibilities between Judaism and modern society; and it will provide you with the clarity and conviction to pass on a legacy of Jewish pride to the next generation.

Join us for To Be a Jew in the Free World

6 WEEKLY SESSIONS

* June 23-27 * June 30-July 3 * July 7-11 * July 14-18 * July 21-25 * July 28-Aug. 1

How would you like to spend 8 uplifting days learning and traveling in Israel with Jewish women from around the world, sharing a journey of spiritual growth?

The Jewish Women's Renaissance Project, an international organization created by Lori Palatnik and 8 other women from throughout the country, is again sponsoring an inspiring "Birthright-like" trip to Israel for women. The women who come will see some of the most breathtaking and significant sites throughout the country, learn from and be inspired by gifted teachers in the Jewish world, share a beautiful Shabbos experience in Jerusalem, participate in chesed projects, and form friendships that will last a lifetime.

The trip is heavily subsidized, with a total price to the participant of only airfare plus a small application processing fee; JWRP takes care of the rest! That's right, it's FREE not including air. The group will be leaving New Albany October 27, and returning on November 5.

The goal of the Jewish Women's Renaissance Project is to bring Jewish women a life-changing opportunity to connect, learn, and grow with other Jewish women to strengthen themselves, their families, their communities, and our people. The trip connects Jewish women throughout the world with each other, with the Land of Israel, and with their Jewish roots.

I am sending this to our Chabad members and participants because we think that because of your involvement in Jewish life you are ideally suited to benefit from and enjoy this trip, so we are contacting you directly to invite you to consider applying. We hope you will consider joining us.

There are a limited number of spots available for this unique trip. We look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible. Please call Esther at 563-2261 or email her with questions, to get more details about this opportunity, or to apply.

What's your reason to celebrate?

The Jewish holidays are the centerpieces of our year. Days when we remember events that forever changed the course of our history. But they are much more than that. The festivals are pauses in time, primed for personal introspection and spiritual re-connection. Windows to the psyche, fortifying us with tools for facing everyday challenges. Kaleidoscopes of beauty and meaning, changing how we see ourselves, our relationships, and our world.

Join us for this eye-opening new learning series from the Rosh Chodesh Society.

Upcoming Rosh Chodesh meeting/luncheon dates:
Mar. 3, Apr. 1, Apr. 30, May 29; 12:00-1:00 pm

For more information contact Esther Kaltmann 614-563-2261 esther.kaltmann@sbcglobal.net
