

Dear Ellie,

When Adar begins, we increase and expand joy and happiness: We heighten and amplify all good and positive things in a joyful manner. Therefore, during the month of Adar, it is customary to do even more joyful things than usual in every sphere of life.

Today, we enter the new month of Adar. Beginning 30 days of unbridled joy, which can remedy and eliminate any and all possibilities of sadness. Anything that does not make us happy is simply nullified.

This month is also a time of good mazel for our people. The Talmud says one should try to schedule an important court case in Adar for extra good mazel. Adar would also be the perfect time to move into a new home, undertake a new endeavor in business or otherwise, or try something new you've been meaning to do but were afraid to take the leap.

May it be a time when only good things happen to the Jewish people.

Shabbat Shalom,

Areyah

פרשת שבוע

Parshat Terumah

The people of Israel are called upon to contribute thirteen materials—gold, silver and copper; blue, purple, and red-dyed wool; flax, goat hair, animal skins, wood, olive oil, spices and gems—out of which, G-d says to Moses, "They shall make for Me a Sanctuary, and I shall dwell amidst them."

On the summit of Mount Sinai, G-d has given detailed instructions on how to construct this dwelling for G-d so that it could be readily disassembled, transported and reassembled as the people journeyed in the desert.

In the Sanctuary's inner chamber, behind an artistically woven curtain, was the ark containing the tablets of testimony engraved with the Ten Commandments; on the ark's cover stood two winged cherubim hammered out of pure gold. In the outer chamber stood the seven-branched menorah, and the table upon which the "showbread" was arranged.

The Sanctuary's three walls were fitted together from 48 upright wooden boards, each of which was overlaid with gold and held up by a pair of silver foundation sockets. The roof was formed of three layers of coverings: (a) tapestries of multicolored wool and linen; (b) a covering made of goat hair; (c) a covering of ram and tachash skins. Across the front of the Sanctuary was an embroidered screen held up by five posts.

Surrounding the Sanctuary and the copper-plated altar which fronted it was an enclosure of linen hangings, supported by 60 wooden posts with silver hooks and trimmings, and reinforced by copper stakes.
