Organic vegetables and herb plants for sale!

Sunday, April 29 - 11:30 am

Everyone is invited to the first Friendship Garden event.

We will be selling vegetable and herb plants and preparing the outdoor garden for planting.

No green thumb necessary - just helping hands!

If you have garden tools helpful for moving dirt and planting seedlings, please bring them.

What is the Friendship Garden?

Things are growing green at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center. The week of Tu B'Shevat, the children of the Gan Menachem Preschool began sowing vegetable seeds. There are now around 700 vegetable and herb seedlings growing in the Gan Menachem Germination Station. The seeds were purchased with funds graciously donated by Gary and Leah Josephson, and donated by Hilliard farmer, "Tomato Bob" Price, as part of his "Seeds to Schools" program. Most of the plants will be going on sale at the Chabad Center, and at the New Albany Farmers' Market beginning in late April. The proceeds from the sale will go to support the Gan Menachem Preschool, which will be entering its second year of operation this September. With over 30 varieties of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, and herbs, there will be something for everyone to pick out to grow in their home garden, or just a pot on the patio. In addition to the Spring Seedling Sale, seedlings will be set aside to start the Gan Menachem Garden, as well as the Chabad Center's Friendship Garden.

Gan Menachem will be establishing its own small garden outside the school, but will also be contributing plants to a larger garden plot that will be utilized by the preschool, Lifetown, and The Friendship Circle for educational programming, and good eating. Bringing all three programs together, the Friendship Garden will allow participants from all of the Chabad Center's youth programs to interact to produce healthy food for the Center, while learning valuable gardening skills, environmental responsibility, and wonder of the variety of our natural world. Produce from the garden will also be sold to raise funds for Chabad programming, and will also be donated to soup kitchens and other organizations dedicated to feeding the hungry of Columbus.

To find out how you can help make the Friendship Garden a reality, or to preorder vegetable seedlings (orders are already coming in so act fast before they're gone), contact Gan Menachem Preschool Director, Zohar Asbel, by email at lscppreschool@gmail.com or by phone at (614) 289-8557. A list of plants for sale and prices will be available online at the Chabad Center website, or pick one up in the lobby.

Don't garden? Donations of any size are welcome! For $250 a raised garden bed can be dedicated to you or in memory of a loved one.

Gan Menachem Preschool

Gan Menachem is a preschool that provides a nurturing environment with warmth and acceptance, building self-esteem and knowledge through a cultivation of Jewish literacy, heritage and identity each day. We are accepting registration for children ages 30 months to 5 years. Full day and half day schedules available. To register or for more information, please go to www.chabadcolumbus.com or call 614-289-8557.

The Art of Marriage

Here's How to Create a Lifelong Masterpiece

The Art of Marriage

A new six-week course from the Rohr Jewish Learning Institute

Judaism views a loving marriage as a spiritual as well as a human ideal. "The Art of Marriage" is a six session course that will show participants how to attain that for themselves and their spouses, with timeless lessons from both modern and ancient Jewish texts such as the Talmud and Zohar.

To register or to read a detailed course description, visit myjli.com

Classes will start Wed, May 2nd and will be held 11:45 AM - 1:00 PM (led by Esther Kaltmann) and 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM (led by Rabbi Kaltmann) at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center
