This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

The 15th Annual Sukkot Carnival was blessed with beautiful weather! Children got fancy with the Glitter Lady, made friends with some bugs, petted turtles and lizards, and wore some very interesting balloon hats!

Thanks to Larry Gilbert and Leslie Fulford for taking photos!

Dear Friends:

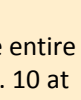

We have endured a monumental loss this week with the passing of our treasured member Dr. Joe Schlonsky. He was an integral part of our weekly services, and was cherished by everyone who walked through our door. He was kind to everyone, took time to make all people in the shul feel welcome with his warmth and vitality. Joe would read the Haftorah beautifully and we could always count on him to help lead services when needed. He was always there to make a minyon when someone had to say kaddish.

His loss will forever be deeply felt. We do not understand why Hashem chose to take away our beloved member Joe. What we do know is that he was a good friend, inspiring congregant, loving father and a true mensch. May Hashem comfort the Schlonsky family among the mourners of Zion.

Shabbat Shalom, Rabbi Areyah Kaltmann

Benefit Friendship Circle and try exciting new Israeli wines!

Open House Sunday, October 14, 4-7 pm

Special Israeli wine tasting benefitting Friendship Circle on Sunday, Oct 14 at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

You won't be able to sample or purchase these wines anywhere else in Ohio - this is an exclusive event! For only $36 per couple, you can sample up to 10 Israeli wines and enjoy light appetizers supplied by Sher Bliss Wine and Chocolate catering.

We will have exciting raffle tickets to purchase too!

Click to download a larger pdf of this map

It's a 4-7 Open House, so come after soccer, or before your family dinner, and enjoy this exciting event sampling wines that are from Israel, one of the world's foremost emerging viticulture regions.

All proceeds benefit the Friendship Circle program and will allow Cheryl Sher to represent Friendship Circle in the New York Marathon on November 4.

Wines will be available for purchase; 5% of purchases will go to Friendship Circle. You will be able to pick up your wine at Sher Bliss in Gahanna on Thursday 10/18, or in Bexley at the JCC.

Friendship Circle is an outreach of the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center
