This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

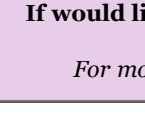

Leslie Fulford and the Ableman family made sure that LifeTown and Friendship Circle were represented at the recent Autism Speaks event.

For Ladies Only

The Women's Chassed Committee will meet this Monday night at 8pm. New members welcome! Help make a difference to members in need or going through life cycle events while enjoying the fellowship of other women. Join us Monday night to learn more.

Starting this week - Esther will teach the women's Kabbalah class at noon on Tuesdays. See class details below under "It's About TIME".

Calling all suggestions! Interested in starting a weekly daytime women's class? Have a topic that interests you? Esther would love to hear from you! If you have an idea for a class theme and/or suggestions on times and days for the class please contact Esther at esther.kaltmann@sbcglobal.net or call the front office at 939-0765 to give your two cents.

Volunteers needed - LifeTown has started!
If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

If you would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule.

For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.

LESSON ONE: The Kabbalah of Sleep

WE'RE told we're here to accomplish, yet we spend about one-third of our lives asleep! This lesson explores practical and powerful spiritual reasons for sleep, uncovering insights and practical tools to help us avoid boredom, initiate fresh beginnings, and infuse excitement and renewal into our lives.
