This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

A note from Rabbi Kaltmann

This week Hashem tells Abraham to leave his home and go to what will be in the future the land of Israel. Hashem uses the expression: Lech Lecha - "go for yourself".

Why go for yourself? Hashem is really asking Abraham to go, so it sounds like it is really for Hashem not Abraham! Truly, when a person charts unfamiliar territory and takes a risk to do something a bit uncomfortable, ultimately, it is for his own growth and benefit.

Hashem wanted Abraham to grow into a father of a great nation, to have the impact on the world he was meant to have. He just needed to leave behind all the was holding him back. Then he would be able to do great things.

In honor of this week's Torah portion Lecha Lecha, I want to share with you a few snapshots of Chaya's experiences in Israel this year. I wish everyone reading this a good journey in all your endeavors and may you all have the strength to "go for yourself". Try something new. Don't let fear hold you back. Keep going so you can reach your fullest potential.

LIFE TOWN
LESSONS FOR LIFE

Volunteers needed - LifeTown has started!
If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

If you would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule.

For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.
