For Ladies Only

The Women's Chessed Committee met last Monday night - this is a vibrant group of women that provides support to community members during times of need. This year's initiative will be to help members in our community who are recovering from illness. Their next event is the Challah sale (see below). Please contact Esther if you would like to join.

Esther led the first class of a new women's Kabbalah series to be held monthly on Tuesdays. The class had a great time discussing the first topic - the spiritual meaning of sleep and how it truly gives us new energy to make lasting change and new beginnings in our life - while enjoying a lovely lunch with friends. See below for future dates and topics. (Rosh Chodesh "It's About Time")

Challah Sale

The Women's Chessed committee will have a challah bake sale on Friday, November 29. Please reserve your challahs by Wednesday, Nov. 27th for Friday pick up. You may pick your challah up at the Chabad between 1-3.

Each loaf is $6 - choice of regular or whole wheat. Send orders to Amy Lewis: alewis21@insight.rr.com.

The Women's Chessed Committee provides support to community members during times of need. Proceeds of this challah bake sale will help support an initiative to help members in our community who are recovering from illness.
