

Announcements

This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

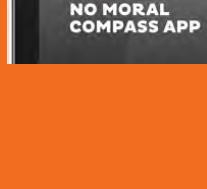

The second annual Chinese dinner was a big success. The evening concluded with a showing of "Operation Thunderbolt" (Mivtsa Yonatan), an Israeli-made dramatization of the 1976 rescue of Israeli hostages from Entebbe, Uganda.

Mazel Tov!

Mazel Tov to the Anderson and Grayfer families on the birth of a baby boy. May they have many nachas!

Join us for a new JLI course starting in January!

Living with Integrity

Navigating Everyday Ethical Dilemmas

Lesson 1: Privacy Are you obligated to share sensitive information about your friend with his or her potential employer or spouse? ### Women's Torah

Don't miss this week's women's Torah study on Saturday, December 29 at 10:00 AM; coffee, cake and great discussion.

For Ladies Only

We had a great turnout of women from all over Columbus on Tuesday Dec. 4 for a lovely lunch and a great discussion on emotional mastery according to Kabbalah. Be sure to mark your calendars for January 15. The topic will be "Food in Focus: The Kabbalah of Spiritual Dieting."

It's About TIME
A new course from the Rosh Chodesh Society
Test-drive the wisdom of the ages in this balance of practical and insightful spiritual self-help, focused on making your life happier, more fulfilled, and more effective. In each session, learn to master one aspect of your personal life related to the kabbalistic energies of the month. Learn. Grow. Be inspired. Be empowered. Take action. Implement change.

Rosh Chodesh society is a women's society that meets once per month

Monthly on Tuesdays - Next meeting Jan. 15th

Topic: Food in Focus: The Kabbalah of Spiritual Dieting.

Why is food so tempting? Why do so many pop-culture diets fail in the long run? Our relationships with food can be rather complex. This lesson explores the kabbalistic reasons why, and introduces Jewish practices that can help make our eating more mindful, healthful, and spiritually satisfying.

12:00 pm

Volunteers needed to make LifeTown a success!
If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

If you would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule.

For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.
