This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

Happy Chanukah!

The first night of Chanukah was quite a celebration as 100 year old Abe Weinrib, Rabbi Andrusier and Rabbi Kaltmann lit the Grand Menorah Saturday day night at Easton Town Center. Over 500 people shared in the celebration at Easton and many more across the globe as we were covered by the media from Columbus to Jerusalem by the Associated Press, CNN, USA Today and the Columbus Dispatch. Condolences go out to:

Yakov and Faina Geyfman, David and Irina Bilenko and family on the loss of their grandmother/mother, Anna Dykhne.

Miriam Shtir, Anna & Vladmir Vayntraub, Itta & Yaakov and family on the passing of their great uncle and brother-in-law, Mordko Shtir, who passed away on Tuesday.

We had a great turnout of women from all over Columbus on Tuesday Dec. 4 for a lovely lunch and great discussion on emotional mastery according to Kabbalah. Be sure to mark your calendars for January 15. The topic will be food and dieting.

Volunteers needed to make LifeTown a success!

If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

If would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule.

For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.

It's about TIME

A new course from the Rosh Chodesh Society
Test-drive the wisdom of the ages in this balance of practical and insightful spiritual self-help, focused on making your life happier, more fulfilled, and more effective.
