Volunteers needed to make LifeTown a success!

If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

If you would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule. We are in session almost every day, so we are in great need of volunteers.

For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.

It's About TIME

A new course from the Rosh Chodesh Society

Test and refine the wisdom of the ages in this balance of practical and insightful spiritual self-help, focused on making your life happier, more fulfilled, and more effective. In each session, learn to master one aspect of your personal life related to the kabbalistic energies of the month. Learn. Grow. Be inspired. Be empowered. Take action. Implement change.

Rosh Chodesh society is a women's society that meets once per month

Monthly on Tuesdays - Next meeting April 9

Topic: Knowing the Unknowable - Bridging the Gap Between Faith and Reason

There are rational proofs for the existence of G-d, but is our faith reason-based? More than a lesson about G-d, this is a lesson about ourselves, exploring the human capacity for reason and critical thinking alongside the inborn need to reach beyond our limited comprehension to marvel at, and envelop ourselves in that which our left brains cannot possibly comprehend.

Study session led by Esther Kaltmann
Catered lunch; Cost $15 (please pay at the door)

"My kids have spent the past two summers at Gan Israel enjoying all the wonderful activities and field trips. In addition to loving the activities, they've made great friends and enhanced their appreciation of Judaism. The best though - are the counselors who are very energetic and incredible with the kids."
~ Lori Berzow

A project of The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center. Limited scholarships available.
